

Attention Trout Anglers!

VDGIF and Virginia Tech are working together to evaluate the stocked trout program. VDGIF and Virginia Tech would love to hear your opinions, comments, concerns, and questions about the stocked trout program here in Virginia! Come learn about the current program, hear how VDGIF and Virginia Tech are working with trout anglers to help manage stocked trout resources in the future, and voice your thoughts. This is the first of many chances to be heard. Please come to learn how stocked trout are managed in Virginia and voice your opinion at one of the following public meetings:
